Hey there!

Fun-fact: Todays stamp is a lobster. Why a lobster? Because I think they're cute (and funny). That's why.

Thanks for all your positive feed-back and understanding for our need to put stamps.
We've been sad that we had to add the stamps and would have prefered to publish without them but unfortunately the greedy hoster-mafia and their loyal subjects did not heed our warning.
Oh well. I guess, we've found a delightful way of getting back at them for harming the scanlation community.
Nevertheless, I'd like to ask each and everyone of you readers out there to spread the word and explain to your friends, why it's harmful to read on those reader-sites. Only if we stick together, can we ever hope to fight the greedy & lazy.

For those of you that are new and do not know what I'm talking about:

Manga-hosting sites are the reason why less mangas get scanlated. Makes no sense? But it does! They steal the scanlations created by people like us, who do it for free and out of the goodness of our hearts and a love for manga, and host them on their own sites where they create millions of ad-revenues. The problem has become so big that more or less all of the big hosting sites are operated by the same Chinese (mafia) group. They don't operate those sites because they want to give you the opportunity to read mangas, no, they just want to rip you off and take you for a fool. The original publishers of course have to take action against that, and therefore start massively taking down scanlations etc.

You can read more about this and other reasons, why you shouldn't read manga on any of the hoster sites except for bato to such as (but not limited to):

www.mangahere.co www.mangafox.com www.mangatown.com www.mangago.me www.kissmanga.com www.tomanga.com www.mangaob.co www.mangainn.net www.mangahome.com www.goodmanga.net www.eatmanga.com www.mangapark.me www.mangasee.co

Those sites are also the reason, why we had to put stamps on our release. So if you don't like them, blame those sites and tell them to respect our policy. We do not allow uploads anywhere except for bato.to and the downloads available on our forum.

(Like always) we're looking for people who are willing to help us create awesome scanlations.
More about us, how to get in contact, our hosting policy, downloads, a chatroom and more can be found on our forum:
